To,

Madam,

This is for your information, the matter was listed on 16.09.2023 when the Hon'ble Supreme Court was about to pass an order granting a specific order of protection/restraint, the Sh. S.V. Raju, Learned ASG had made a statement that no such action will be taken, the same was reported in the media and a few news articles occurring in Live Law, NDTV etc. are herein appended as annexure to this email.

The statement was sought to be retracted and taken back today i.e. 15.3.2024 when the matter has been fixed for final hearing and disposal on 19.3.2024. However, the Hon'ble Supreme Court did not acknowledge the same and the matter has been posted to 19.03.2024.

In wake of the above, ED would be restrained from even summoning you or taking any coercive action.

This is for your information and necessary action.
